

5 things for an unforgettable trip to Malta

Surrounded by the clear blue waters of the Mediterranean Sea South of Sicily, the small island of Malta Island is known for its history, prehistoric temples, magnificent churches, scenic hilltop towns, peaceful seaports, fossil-studded cliffs, dazzling hidden coves, soul-feeding vistas and exhilarating scuba diving and harbor side restaurants.

The island of Malta has been invaded several times over the centuries and as such contains many different historic spots for sightseeing. I highly recommend you visit some of these to take in Malta's unique history, architecture and culture.

If you are looking to explore Malta's incredible beauty then we have some tips to help make your trip truly unforgettable. Here, we have suggested just a few things to do in Malta while you travel to the country.

Mdina

It is the first citadel and old town of Malta. Mdina is the beautiful medieval city that boasts some astounding baroque and Norman architecture.

Red Tower

The Red Tower, also known as St. Agatha's Tower is situated in Mellieha that was constructed towards the middle of 17th century. The tower is known for its brightly painted walls and magnificent architecture.

Valletta

No Malta travel guide will be completed without mentioning the beautiful place of the capital city of Malta – Valletta. During your travels, you may spend whole day exploring Valletta and its endless attractions such as St John's Co-Cathedral, War Museum, Mdina, Mdina Cathedral and Museum, Mnajdra and Hagar Qim etc.

Chinese Garden of Serenity (Santa Lucija)

The garden was built in 1997 that covers 8000 square meters and is popular among natives and tourists. This beautiful garden is made up of four smaller gardens with an elegantly crafted layout which depicts the whole journey we travel through from birth to death, including the Yin and Yang philosophy. The Chinese Garden of Serenity is known for its traditional Chinese arts, architecture and designs. Here, visitors may cherish the peace and tranquil of the garden and find out other eye-catching sights such as fountains, zigzag formed corridors, bridges, rocks and distinct types of doors with their own specific significance and meaning.

Malta National Aquarium

Malta National Aquarium is located at Qawra Point, St Paul's Bay. The aquarium has tanks, comprising reptiles, amphibians, insects and invertebrate species. The uniquely designed starfish-shaped dome is home to different species of fish and marine life. There is a 12 m underwater tunnel which allows tourists to walk through a gigantic tank and thrilling experience to see the sharks swimming above your head.

For more information on Things To Do In Malta, Travel Guide To Malta. Please visit : <http://eatwelltraveleverywhere.com/>

---